WEST TEAMS ARE TO GO INTO EAST

Grid Fans Will Get Good Line on Comparative Strength of Prep Teams Saturday.

EVERETT HIGH TO DETROIT

De Paul of Chicago Off for Boston While E. Aurora, State Champs, Play in New York.

Chicago, Dec. 2.-After Saturday's prep games football followers will have an opportunity to decide on the relative atrough between eastern and western teams. Three games are sisted, and each contest brings together pair of representative teams from the sections in which they have performed.

Every one of the six teams plays a distinct style of game, the western elevens resorting mostly to the open brand and the eastern representatives to the Harvard tactics

It is the first time in the history of the prep kicking game that as many as three intersectional battles have been played by high school or academy teams in a single season.

No individual has any business figuring out the most important tussle of the three. Some may single out the Detroit Central-Everett high game, which will be played at Detroit, but others will pick out the De Paul academy-Beverly high game at Beverly Mass, or the East Aurora-Hamilton Institute tilt at New York City, De Paul has been beaten, but no one will argue that they are not fit to represent Chleago.

Even in this city the interest in the Detroit-Everett match is a bit more than lukewarm, probably because the kickers from Cobbland drabbed the Oak Park team so unmercifully last Saturday. And then perhaps it is because Everett struck up such an acquaintance with these same Oak Parkyear for an 80 to 0 cudgeling

Chicago, Dec. 2 .- Jacob Woodward appeared in the city yesterday to give the local pugifistic folks a peek at his husky middleweight form, but as most people won't know who Jacob Woodard is we'll switch to the assumed moniker right here, for the visiting party was none other than Young Ahearn of Brooklyn, who is to battle Mike Gibbons at the Capital City Athletic club of St. Paul on Dec. 10. Ahearn comes to these parts all bundled up in "rep," for he glories in the fact that he holds the title of European middleweight champion, an honor he grabbed off before they started the "big fight" across the pond

The arrival of Ahearn was the streat for the gymnasium frequenters to wend their way to Forbes' gymnasium, which spot had been picked out for training quarters. As train riding produces stiffness. Ahearn didn't waste any time in getting down to the business of removing said stiffness. The first thing he did was to hurry to the gym, where he donned his togs and went through the usual routine stuff, after which he gave the good sized crowd of fans a real treat by boxing three rounds. Tony Mellehar, local beavyweight, was picked out as the best man to make it interesting for Ahearn, but Tony quickly discovered that the eastorner knows all about the game in Ernie Abramson, left tackie of the William has been chosen captain of Abearn showed him something about speed and cleverness. Abearn tore loose and peppered Tony with both hands with such rapidity that Harry Forbes and a few others stood open mouthed.

Abcarn didn't even have a chance to telegram from the St. Paul club ordering him to end his training in Chicago and come to the Minnesota city to work. So Ahearn and Tom Larlus, who accompanied him, boarded the rattler last night at 10 o'clock for St. Paul
